

Summit on Sports & Gambling

Wednesday, July 13, 2016

Westchester Marriott, Tarrytown, NY

Salon 1&2

America has an enormous appetite for sports yet prohibits most sports betting, with single game wagering legally available in only one state. The Summit brings together key stakeholders to explore the critical issues in the burgeoning national debate about the further legalization of sports gambling. This event is also intended to build on the information sharing and networking opportunities of the previous Summits held the by National Collegiate Athletic Association and National Football League.

8:00-8:15 Welcome, Conference Goals & Objectives

- Keith Whyte, Executive Director, NCPG

8:15-8:45 Opening Remarks: A football player provides a powerful first person account of his problems with gambling during his 13 year professional career and his successful recovery from addiction.

- Angus Reid, British Columbia Lions (retired)

8:45-9:15 A (Brief) History of Sports Betting in US: A review of the rich history of sports betting in America including scandals in amateur and professional athletics and the legal and law enforcement issues that led to the current national prohibition with limited exceptions.

- Dave Schwartz, PhD, Director, UNLV Center for Gaming Research

9:15-10:00 Betting on College: Unlike in other countries youth sports in America are dominated by the college athletic system with its unique emphasis on amateurism. College sports are extremely popular for both fans and gamblers. By many estimates more money is bet on March Madness than the Super Bowl. Panelists will discuss concerns with betting by and on student athletes.

- Jeff Derevensky, PhD, Director, International Centre for Youth Gambling Problems and High-Risk Behaviors, McGill University
- Maureen Riehl, Director, Student Sports Protection Alliance Network
- Moderator: David Purdum, ESPN Chalk

10:00-10:30 Networking Break

10:30-11:30 Key Issues in the Debate on Legalization of Sports Betting: Panelists from a variety of perspectives will discuss the current legislative, regulatory and political issues and prospects for Federal and/or state level action.

- David Purdum, ESPN Chalk
- Sara Rayme, Senior Vice President of Public Affairs, American Gaming Association
- Dan Shapiro, Director of Business Development, William Hill US
- Moderator: Allegra Smith, JD, GamblingCompliance

11:00-12:00 Daily Fantasy Sports: What's next for fantasy sports, and how much does fantasy sports overlap with sports betting? What are the consumer protection concerns and the responsible play solutions?

- Marc Edelman, JD, Associate Professor of Law, CUNY
- Christian Fisher, JD, Associate, Fox Rothschild
- Joe Kelly, JD, PhD, Professor of Business Law, SUNY College Buffalo
- Moderator: Daniel Roberts, Yahoo Finance & Sports

12:00-1:00 Lunch

1:00-2:00 Organized Crime, Soft Targets & Sports Betting: Attempts to fix games for betting purposes have a long history and continue today. Amateur and professional athletes, officials and league personnel have all been targeted by criminal elements. Presenters will discuss known vulnerabilities, public cases and potential remedies.

- George Quinlan & Carlos Hernandez, Integrity in Sports Program, Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Mark Strothkamp, JD, Associate Director of Enforcement, National Collegiate Athletics Association
- Moderator: Wiley Harwell, DDiv, ICGC II, President, NCPG

2:00-3:00 Protecting Players: Gambling by athletes poses risks for their health and the integrity of the game. Panelists will review the published research on gambling participation and problems among high school, amateur and professional athletes. They will also review case studies of high profile players who sought help for gambling problems.

- Jeff Derevensky, PhD, Professor, McGill University
- Chuck Maurer, PhD, Private Practice
- Moderator: Steve Block, President, New York Council on Problem Gambling

3:00-3:30 Networking Break

3:30-4:00 PASPA Predictions: Panelists will discuss the status and predicted outcomes of the New Jersey challenge to PASPA as well as other possible legal and legislative approaches to overturning the “Bradley Bill” which could lead to legalization of sports betting across the country.

- Joe Kelly, JD, PhD, Professor of Business Law, SUNY College Buffalo
- Bill Pascrell, JD, Strategic Advisor, Princeton Public Affairs Group
- Daniel Wallach, JD, Shareholder, Becker & Poliakoff
- Moderator: Nan Horner, JD, Executive Vice President, Empire Resorts

4:00-4:45 Focus on the Future: From in-play betting to social betting apps to e-sports, what are the coming technological changes that will impact sports wagering and internet gambling?

- Brett Abarbanel, PhD, Head, Social & Recreational Gambling Research, UCLA Gambling Studies Program
- Rich Roberts, President of Digital-US, Sportech
- Quinton Singleton, JD, Vice President Corporate Strategy & Legal Affairs, NYX Gaming
- Moderator: Will Green, Gaming Analyst, Legal Sports Report

4:45-5:00 Closing Remarks

- Keith Whyte, Executive Director, NCPG

The Summit is hosted by the National Council on Problem Gambling as pre-conference session at the 30th National Conference on Problem Gambling. For additional information and registration:

www.ncpgambling.org/conference