

2019 Florida Legislative Session Wrap Up Event Video

May 31, 2019

By: Ellyn S. Bogdanoff, Yolanda Cash Jackson

Recently, Becker hosted a Session Wrap-Up event featuring a discussion on the hot and not-so-hot issues covered during the recent Florida Legislative Session.

Moderated by Becker Shareholders Ellyn S. Bogdanoff and Yolanda Cash Jackson, the event featured special guests Senator Oscar Braynon II, Representative Shevrin Jones, and Representative Chip LaMarca. The conversation explored key issues from the 2019 Florida Legislative Session including the bills that passed, and those that didn't, as well as the Delegation's priorities, action steps, school board priorities, and economic opportunities.

View highlights of the event below. This "can't miss" conversation, is essential for anyone interested in Florida politics in 2019.

Becker's Government Law & Lobbying team has a first-hand working knowledge of government, at every level, and provides clients with valuable insights, unparalleled access and a deep understanding of the legislative, administrative, and regulatory processes to help navigate the maze of government. The team's varied relationships and knowledge of different issues offers clients new opportunities for coalition building with like-minded groups and connections to lawmakers from both sides of the aisle.