

“Investors Dash Into Miami Opportunity Zones,” The Real Deal

January 28, 2019

By: Philip C. Rosen

Investors and developers in Miami-Dade County have been pouring money into Opportunity Zones. From April through September, property sales in those areas tallied $942 million, a 25 percent increase from the same time in 2017, according to The Real Deal's analysis of records.

Becker Real Estate Shareholder Phil Rosen discusses this topic saying, “Investors are out there raising money, they are buying properties, they are penciling the numbers out. We are starting to run, but the gun hasn’t fired.”

Click here to view the full article from The Real Deal.