Mr. Direktor is Chair of Becker's Community Association practice group which includes over forty attorneys. He personally represents communities from Miami to Vero Beach focusing on representation of condominium, homeowners and cooperative associations and country clubs. He is a regular speaker on the topics of insurance, hurricane recovery, fiscal management, document drafting and other issues for various civic and community associations for the Community Associations Institute and for Florida Bar Continuing Legal Education Seminars. Mr. Direktor is also one of only 126 attorneys statewide who is a Board Certified Specialist in Condominium and Planned Development Law.

He is an Adjunct Professor of Law, teaching community association law at Nova Southeastern University College of Law for the past seven years. Mr. Direktor was also designated by Florida Business Magazine as one of "Florida's Legal Elite" in Real Estate Law for 2016. He was recognized by Florida Trend Legal Elite in 2017 and 2018.

Mr. Direktor regularly lectures for various management companies and management associations on community association legal, operational and practical issues and has lectured for CAI's National Law Seminar in Tucson, the Advanced Judicial Studies Seminar and University of Miami School of Law Annual Cluster Housing Institute. He has been interviewed on national and local television and quoted in national, statewide and local publications.

PROFESSIONAL / COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Mr. Direktor is a member of the prestigious College of Community Association Lawyers, a group of attorneys who have distinguished themselves through contributions to community association law and who have committed themselves to high standards of ethical conduct. Fewer than 150 lawyers are members of this exclusive group.
