

“Leaders of the Industry,” FLCAJ Magazine

July 28, 2020

By: Kenneth S. Direktor

---

Becker Shareholder Kenneth S. Direktor has been recognized by FLCAJ Magazine as a leader in the community association industry.

“Kenneth S. Direktor serves as Chair of Becker’s Community Association Practice—a group comprised of 50-plus attorneys throughout Florida and New Jersey. Ken focuses his practice on the representation of condominium, homeowners and cooperative associations, and country clubs. Under his auspices, Becker was the first to launch electronic voting software BeckerBALLOT as well as MyCommunitySite.com, a best-in-class community association website development service. Ken continues to follow in the footsteps of the firm’s founders who “wrote the law” governing the operation of community associations. His passion for the industry and Florida’s communities is unending and remains evident in his lifelong role as attorney, professor, speaker, and advocate.”

View the full article here.