

Lee Weintraub in Engineering News Record

May 12, 2017

By: Lee A. Weintraub

Lee Weintraub, vice chair of our construction law and litigation practice and vice chair of public-private partnerships, spoke with the Engineering News Southeast in its May 8, 2017, issue.

In an article on the use of design-build as the delivery method for construction projects, Lee discusses reasons for its increasing popularity.
