■ Fort Lauderdale-based law firm Becker, which has a robust lobbying presence in Tallahassee, will announce Tuesday that Mike Grissom is joining its capital city office.

Grissom comes to the firm from Enterprise Florida, where he served as executive vice president and, briefly, as interim president and CEO following Pete Antonacci’s appointment as Broward County Supervisor of Elections.

While Grissom’s pre-EFI resume includes stints as the senior director of political affairs at the Florida Chamber of Commerce and as executive director of the Republican Party of Florida, it was his time at the public-private partnership that caught the attention of his new employer.
