

Perry Adair Appointed to Florida Bar Code & Rules of Evidence Committee

June 11, 2012

By: Perry M. Adair

CORAL GABLES, FL, June 6, 2012 - Becker & Poliakoff, a diversified commercial law firm with more than 145 attorneys and lobbyists in Florida, New York City, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., and internationally, today announced that attorney Perry M. Adair, a shareholder with the Firm, has been appointed to the Code & Rules of Evidence Committee of the Florida Bar.

The Code & Rules of Evidence Committee is responsible for ensuring that the Supreme Court's Rules of Evidence are in accordance with the law of evidence established by the legislature and codified in the Florida Statutes. The committee evaluates and makes recommendations on proposed legislative changes. Mr. Adair will serve a three-year term on the committee.

Mr. Adair was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1984 and is Board Certified in Construction Law. His practice is concentrated in the areas of business litigation and land use with a focus on construction disputes and telecommunications issues.

Mr. Adair has extensive experience in all aspects of wireless communications, from handling the land use aspects of tower and roof top installations and litigation arising from those matters, to assisting local governments with the drafting of telecommunications related legislation.

In its inaugural "Legal Elite" poll, Florida Trend magazine named Mr. Adair among its "Legal Elite" in the area of Civil Trial Law. In 2004, he was again included in the Legal Elite in the area of Land Use, Zoning and Telecommunications law. This recognition was based upon a poll of Florida attorneys, who selected peers in the top 2% of their respective practice areas.

Mr. Adair is a frequent speaker on the topic of e-discovery. His presentation, "A Byte Of Planning Can Save You A Gigabyte of Trouble - What Legal Professionals Can Expect Under the Proposed New Florida e-Discovery State Rules," has been hosted by legal organizations throughout South Florida.

Mr. Adair received his B.A. degree from the University of Florida in 1981 and graduated magna cum laude from the University of Miami Law School in 1984.

About Becker & Poliakoff

Becker & Poliakoff is a diverse commercial law firm with more than 145 attorneys and lobbyists in a total of 15 domestic and international offices. Celebrating its fortieth (40th) year of serving clients, the firm has seven primary areas of practice: Real Estate, Construction Law & Litigation, Community Association, Customs & International Trade, Business Litigation, Corporate & Securities, and Government Law & Lobbying.