Show Me The Money: Crafting Successful Collection & Foreclosure Strategies for Community Associations

Provider #0000811, Course #9625735, 2 IFM/ELE Presented by: K. Joy Mattingly, Esq. and Howard J. Perl, Esq.

Are collection issues still plaguing your association? Are bank foreclosures dragging on for years with no end in sight? Are you confused about the changes in laws affecting association collection rights and remedies?

Join collections and foreclosure attorney, Joy Mattingly, and Community Association attorney, Howard Perl, as they explore the fundamentals of collections and discusses effective legal strategies as well as practical techniques to solve your collection issues. After more than four decades of collecting past due amounts for our community association clients around the State, we have more than our fair share of success stories to share.

Sign in: 1:30 p.m.

Light refreshments will be provided.

This class is complimentary, but seating is limited.

Registration is required.
