

Technology / Telecommunications

Our technology attorneys work closely with communities to negotiate the terms and conditions of bulk cable, internet and video communications contracts, as well as cell tower and roof tower leases, and the restructuring of cell tower agreements. As technology changes, we also assist communities with upgrades including contractions for the wiring of “smart buildings”, security systems, and fiber optic and satellite.