

Webinar: 2020 Elections and Display of Signs in Community Associations

October 23, 2020

By: Tana Bucca, Arnold J. Calabrese, David L. Dockery, Ellen M. Goodman

Watch the replay of this timely webinar that answered frequently asked questions that are front and center during this hotly contested campaign season. It's easy to misstep if you don't know New Jersey law.

Topics Covered:

- Can owners in condos and individual homes display political signs?
- If so, where can those signs be displayed?
- Are American flags modified to convey a political statement protected by federal law?
- What about signs saying Black Lives Matter or All Lives Matter?
- What if your governing documents say no signs are permitted?
- Can the Board adopt rules limiting the display of signs?

Watch the replay below!

SPEAKERS:

Arnold J. Calabrese
Moderator
Office Managing Shareholder
Morristown

Tana Bucca
Panelist
Shareholder

David L. Dockery
Panelist
Senior Attorney

Ellen M. Goodman
Panelist
Senior Attorney